

DREAM YOUR SCHOOL - MONDAY FEBRUARY 27TH 9-3.15PM

8.45 – 9.10am: Arrival, welcome, tea – check re photos and film permissions. Make fun name badges with Kathy. Orientation.

9.10-9.55am: SETTING OFF – THEATRE - Everyone

- Welcome! What's the purpose and structure of the day? Ice breakers. Setting intentions and agreeing expectations. Introducing the sessions and facilitators. Introducing the Web of Ideas.

10 – 10.45am: SESSION 1

- Theatre/ stage: An introduction to philosophy for children. With St Luke's philosophy club
- Seminar Room: Roving reporters/ journalist team set up and get going. With Felix Gonzales (max 12 participants)
- Jane Attenborough Studio: Everyday Alchemy – Making kale & feta borek with Robin Van Creveld, Community Chef. PLEASE WASH HANDS BEFOREHAND!
- Gardner Tower: Intro to Mindfulness in the classroom. With Lotus Class, Dharma School
- Gardner Tower Mezzanine Bricks 'n' Mortar – Collaboratively re-imagining school through Lego and Plasticine with Ellie from ONCA (max 12 participants)
- Workshop Studio: Deepening Debate in the Classroom - explore the effects of gender stereotypes on confidence and potential with Jess Cheetham & Simon Magnus, Root Experience/ Spun Glass Theatre
- Outdoors: Nature journaling with Rachel Bennington. Sensory activities to help get into the detail of nature and finish with a creative product. We will finish with some annotated drawing that combines science and art (max 15 participants)

10.45 -11: Tea break

11 – 11.45: SESSION 2

- Theatre: Exploring our relationship with tech in schools through tech with film maker Gani Naylor (for young people primarily, max of 12)
- Seminar Room: What Makes a Safe Space? Creative making session with Lynn Weddle & Jen Staff of Articulate (max 12 participants)
- Jane Attenborough Studio: Cultural Synergy - Making middle eastern dips with Robin Van Creveld, Community Chef. PLEASE WASH HANDS BEFOREHAND!
- Gardner Tower: Visual communication & BSL introduction with Parveen & Louise of ROCK and Lex from ONCA (max 20 participants)
- Gardner Tower Mezzanine: Bricks 'n' Mortar – Collaboratively re-imagining school through Lego and Plasticine with Ellie from ONCA (max 12 participants)
- Workshop Studio: Can we free our minds? With Savannah Sevenzo of Decolonise Sussex & Tasha Mansley of the Role Models Project
- Outdoors: Games in nature with Rachel Bennington. As many as we can cram into 45 minutes!

11.50 – 12.40: SESSION 3

- Theatre: Music is your Birthright - using musical tools to unlock inspiration and learning. With Keith (MovingSounds, Cultural Emergence)
- Seminar Room: Turn boring office supplies into creative artwork with Cocoa, Self-Managed Learning Centre
- Jane Attenborough Studio: Creating Harmony - Making crumpets & compotes with Robin, Community Chef. PLEASE WASH HANDS BEFOREHAND!
- Gardner Tower: Archiving Survival Strategies - Making zines with Jacob Joyce, non binary interdisciplinary artist that disrupts commercial and community spaces with queer and decolonial, creative interventions (please note that this session is an hour long)
- Gardner Tower Mezzanine: Bricks 'n' Mortar – Collaboratively re-imagining school through Lego and Plasticine with Ellie from ONCA (max 12 participants)
- Workshop Studio: Using Improv Skills in the classroom with Jenny Haufek (Blanket Fort, the Maydays)
- Outdoors: Exploring scientific thinking through the eyes of the child. With Katie Scanlan, Circle of Life Rediscovery (max 15 participants)

12.40 – 1.10 Lunch - Please eat packed lunches in the Jane Attenborough Studio, or buy food in Falmer House. LUNCH IS NOT PROVIDED. (Sorry!)

- Start adding your feedback/ ideas tags to the Web of Ideas.
- Bring your stories to the Press Centre.
- Propose your Open Spaces for session 4 (see someone from the ONCA team if you have ideas for sessions/ conversations)

1.15 - 1.25 THEATRE - Quick warm-up/ regroup/ explain structure of afternoon

1.30 – 2.15: SESSION 4

- Theatre (stage): Making the Web of Ideas with Sarah Bennett (drop-in) – bring your ideas/ reflections about the day and add them to the web
- Theatre (stalls): Press Centre - Roving reporters editing footage together – drop in and add your news stories and photos
- Seminar Room: Open Space discussions TBC – these may include
 1. A democratic school for East Sussex?
 2. What is Reggio Emilia?
- Jane Attenborough Studio: Open Space for discussion/ workshop – food related? TBC
- Gardner Tower: Future-ready learning: what are the small steps that can help learning organisations turn to face a critical future of planetary change and help young people thrive in a changing world? Bridget McKenzie, Flow
- Gardner Tower Mezzanine: Bricks 'n' Mortar – Collaboratively re-imagining school through Lego and Plasticine – drop in/ finish off!
- Workshop Studio: Making group poems with Kathy (LifeBeat) and Keith
- Outdoors: Make a Murmuration with Felix Prater. More outdoor games

2.20 – 3.15: DREAM YOUR SCHOOL - THEATRE - Everyone

Explore the Web of Ideas and share feedback from all the workshops - short films, photographs, poems, music and other creations. Draw this into series of themes and ideas for policy proposals. With the Web of Ideas, film from Gani Naylor and Felix Gonzales' groups, and Luke Flegg using Realtime Board.

3.15: Goodbyes, and thank yous!